Weekly Update

Specials for next week

- Monday—No School
- Tuesday—Technology
- Wednesday—Science
- Thursday—Music
- Friday—Art

Remember to dress your child in sneakers/tennis shoes on P.E. days.

Library check-out day is every Wednesday. Please return books by each Wednesday to received a new one.

Writing: Essential Question: We are learning to write informative pieces. We'll be focusing on George Washington and Abraham Lincoln this week.

Reading: We are finding the comparisons between familiar characters in stories. Our two stories are The Snowy Day and Pet Show! Both by Ezra Jack Keats.

Math: We've begun our unit on addition and subtraction. We'll be using items, pictures, and numbers to add and subtract.

Social Studies: We are learning about George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Then we'll move into the presidency and American symbols.

Things to do at home:
Sight words this week:

Writing Homework Folder: Continue to write stories in your folder.

Math: Add and subtract numbers within 1-10. Use items such as Cheerios, toy cars, pennies, etc.

Early Release days

Monday 02/25 and Tuesday 02/26 12:50pm.

We have scheduled parent conferences online for those two days. We will be having lunch at school but at a different time. No need to send a snack for those two days. Conference appointments will last 30 minutes. If we need additional time we can reschedule so we're not using someone else's appointment time. Please email me ahead of time if you have questions you'd like to address during our time.

Six Flags Read to Succeed

The reading logs are due no later than February 22nd in order to be able to earn a ticket to Six Flags. You must use and return the official reading log. If you miss the deadline or don't use the log then Six Flags will not give us a ticket. No late logs will be accepted by Six Flags. Please make sure you signed the form.

Thank you

Valentine's Day was fun and Mrs. Fay and I thank you for the delicious goodies, sweet cards and little gifts. Love was in the air!
